[redacted] said that this would not be necessary since she had just heard that [redacted] had apparently been successful in obtaining a position with DOD. [redacted] mentioned that in view of Senator Saltonstall's decision not to run for office again, she would be looking for a secretarial position at the GS-7 level. I told [redacted] that our personnel people would be pleased to interview her, and she said that she would think this over, and it was arranged that she would contact [redacted] directly if she decided to pursue possibilities with the Agency.

25X1

4. [redacted] Met with James Kendall, Chief Counsel of the Senate Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee, and received from him a series of DOD reports on the military capabilities of free world forces. This was pursuant to a request to Mr. Helms by Senator Stennis that we review these, furnishing on an informal basis an evaluation of the reports. Mr. Kendall would like these by Wednesday, 19 October.
